Travel Inspiration for Your Summer City Getaway

By: Staff

Summer is almost here, which means it's time to start planning. You can never be too early when it comes to summer travel, as everyone's ready for a much-needed escape.

Tried-and-true favorites — Paris, London, et. al. — are trending this summer, but we've also seen some under-the-radar newcomers swiftly move up the ranks. Regardless of where you want to go, though, Fora Advisors have a knack for making magic happen. Here's where to go to stay on top of the trends, and where to go to start some new ones.

Trending destinations to book now

This summer, Fora travelers are heading to these top five cities: Paris, London, Rome, Athens and Florence. And it's easy to see why. Each locale has its own distinct personality, a rich mix of culture, history and cuisine. Expect crowds, but the throngs are worth it. Even better, Fora Advisors will help you get off the beaten path and discover gems beyond the tourist traps. They help you travel like an insider.

Florence

Florence, the Renaissance's birthplace, is brimming with art and culture. Architecture lovers will be especially happy here. The Santa Maria del Fiore Cathedral's famed Duomo is but one of the marvels you'll encounter here. And with more daylight, you'll have more time to explore city's impressive array of museums, food markets and gardens.

The Place Firenze: A perennial favorite at Fora HQ, and among our advisors. The hotel is effortlessly elegant, a true paean to Italian craftsmanship. (They even have a scholarship that sponsors Italian artisans to learn traditional fields like porcelain production, glass etching, cashmere and silversmithing.)
