It's a hotel group founded in 1955 by Dino Innocenti, a pioneer in the hôtellerie sector, who began by creating the Grand Hotel Mediterraneo in Florence. The story continued in 1968 with the construction of the Grand Hotel Palatino in Rome, a stone's throw from the Colosseum. Then the group continued its growth with the purchase of the Hotel Calzaiuoli, in the heart of Florence, which opened in 1984. When the founder passed away, the heirs, who in the meantime had become owners of the structures, continued the expansion policy and in 1995 they acquired the Hotel Villa Fiesole. Today FH55 HOTELS is a hotel group made up of 4 structures, each with its own identity, but united by those values that the property transmits daily to all the staff and hotel management.
